

1 CORINTHIANS 13

1. Paul tells us how we all have to work together in harmony. He uses the body as an example. He then goes on to tell us how some have been called to be apostles, prophets, teachers, workers of miracles, healers, helpers and so forth. He also says, "I will show you a still more excellent way." What is this more excellent way? As a hint, Paul says even if we have prophetic powers and understand all mysteries and all knowledge but do not have this we are nothing.

2. What do we sound like, according to St. Paul, if we speak in tongues but do not have love?

3. In I Corinthians 13, Paul discusses love. What three things does Paul say abide, in his discussion of love?

4. In the previous question, which does Paul identify as the greatest?
