

1 CORINTHIANS 5

1. In 1 Corinthians 5, Paul chided the Corinthians for allowing immorality in their community. The immoral person was,

- a. An elderly man living with his step daughter.
- b. An elderly woman living with her nephew.
- c. A man living with his father's wife.
- d. A brother living with his sister.
- e. An elderly man living with a younger man.

2. In 1 Corinthians 5 we find Paul was quite displeased with the immorality within the Corinthian community. In 1 Corinthians 5, what did he instruct the Corinthians to do with the immoral person?

- a. Stone the person to death.
- b. Deliver the person to Satan for the destruction of the flesh.
- c. Pray for the person.
- d. Try to win the person over through Christian hospitality.
- e. Fulfill their civic duties by reporting the person to the Roman authorities.

3. Paul instructed the Corinthians, in 1 Corinthians 5, not to associate with certain people. These people were which of the following?

- a. All the immoral of this world.
- b. Unbelievers who were robbers and idolaters.
- c. Pagan priests and priestesses.
- d. Any one who said they were a brother, if they were guilty of immorality or greed.
- e. All of the above.

4. In 1 Corinthians 5, Paul refers to an earlier letter he had written to the Corinthians. True or false?

ANSWERS

1. a (5:1).

2. b (5:5).

3. d (5:9-13).

4. True (5:9).